Introducing the Community Foundations Model

Executive Education

Do you work, or have an interest in, the field of philanthropy in Africa? Do you wish to grow your expertise and deepen your understanding of community foundations and community philanthropy? And, would you like to be able to establish your own community foundation?

The Centre on African Philanthropy and Social Investment (CAPSI) at Wits Business School presents an online masterclass:

Introducing the Community Foundations Model

Who is it for?

This masterclass is aimed at individuals who wish to develop expertise and strengthen their knowledge in the field of philanthropy, especially community philanthropy, and social investment on the African continent. It is designed for those who aspire to be change-makers in this field as well as for experienced professionals studying part-time for professional development. Specifically, it is for those who wish to develop their understanding of community foundations and their relevance in community development.

Why a masterclass?

Masterclasses give delegates an opportunity to attend a short class which focuses on only one area of interest. This 'laser' approach to learning suits busy professionals who are not able to attend longer courses.

What will I learn?

- The community foundation model
- Gifting practices
- Organising and managing community foundations
- Stakeholder management
- How to create and implement a community foundation model
- Community development
- Resource mobilisation
