Introduction to African Philanthropy

Executive Education

Do you have an interest in the field of philanthropy and social investment? Do you aspire to be a change-maker in this field but want to deepen your understanding of the role of African Philanthropy in social, political, economic and cultural relations on the continent?

The Centre on African Philanthropy and Social Investment (CAPSI) presents an online masterclass:
Introduction to African Philanthropy

Who is it for?

This masterclass is aimed at individuals who wish to develop expertise and strengthen their knowledge in the field of philanthropy and social investment on the African continent. It is designed for those who aspire to be change-makers in this field as well as for experienced professionals studying part-time for professional development.

Why a masterclass?

Masterclasses give delegates an opportunity to attend a short class which focuses on only one area of interest. This 'laser' approach to learning suits busy professionals who are not able to attend longer courses.

What will I learn?

The following topics will be covered:

- Overview of African philanthropy in historical and contemporary contexts
- The role of philanthropy in Africa's development
- Institutional forms and practices of philanthropy
- The role of philanthropy in social relations and problem solving
- Africa's philanthropy landscape in relation to its development contribution
- Philanthropy in crisis moments
